

Athenaeum III

St. Jude Charity Event Camp Taloha, Pine Bluff, AR

<http://www.msstate.edu/org/sca/index.html>

Mark your calenders for the the weekend of April 16, 17 & 18 and come participate and watch as we dedicate an event to the greatest of virtues; Charity. Athenaeum III will be celebrated in honor of this virtue with all site fee profits being donated to St Jude Children's Research Hospital. The Roses and Diamonds will sponsor a tournament.

Format for the tournament will be forthcoming. A Mediterranean feast will be prepared and presented by the Her Grace, Duchess Broinnfinn inghean ui Chathain. Continuing the theme of past Athenaeums, the Arts and Sciences shall be present with an open A&S display and a variety of classes to attend.

Pricing

Cabin – $28 Kids under 12 - ½ Price Babe-in-arms - Free
Primitive Cabin/Tenting – $23 Non-members – Add $3
Day – $16 Offboard – Subtract $5
Cash only at the door please.

Event Steward: Lord Gwynn Bleyne (Alex Kolassa)
alexkolassa@gmail.com 662-615-1549 (Please leave a message)

Reservations: Lady Else Fitzpen (Tara LaCoss)
tnkelse@yahoo.com 662-615-1549 (Please leave a message)

Send reservations to:
Tara LaCoss, 1298 Endotha Rd Lot 7, Starkville, MS 39759.
Make checks payable to:
SCA Inc, Shire of Tor an Riogh

Feastocrat: Broinnfinn inghean ui Chathain (Robbin Koenig)
broinnfinn@gmail.com Contact with food allergy concerns

Directions: Take your best route to I-530, exit 39. Turn west on Hwy 79 and then right on Hwy 54 (Sulphur Springs Road). Drive 5 miles, take the right fork to Lee Springs Road. Right on Camp Taloha Road.